ECOA NOTICE: The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington DC 20580. If your application for business credit is denied or conditionally approved, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial or the conditional approval. To obtain the statement, please contact General Electric Capital Corporation at 300 E. John Carpenter Freeway Suite 500, Irving TX, 75062 within 60 days from the date you are notified of such denial or condition. We will send you a written statement of reasons for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request for the statement.

Establishing a relationship with GE Capital: To help the United States Government fight terrorism and money laundering, it is GE Capital's policy to request information that identifies each person or business that establishes a relationship with us. Therefore, for businesses, we will ask for your business name, street address and taxpayer identification number. For individuals, we will ask for your name, street address, date of birth and Social Security number. We may also ask to see identifying documents. Thank you for your cooperation.
